

January 2022 Community Book Read Plans

- Friday, 7th Hold an opening assembly; present Chapter 1 to students; “Minute to Win” it games. Use games to bring about discussion of learning through losing. Students need to read the book in order to be successful in the Jeopardy game on January 21st. Challenge classes - rewrite a popular song of your choice with information from the book! The lyrics should be submitted (BONUS for a video of the class performing the song). The most creative performance wins a prize!!! Books will be distributed to students as they leave the auditorium.
- Thursday, 13th Chapter 2-4 ROAR -- R.I.2, R.I.10, W.2-work on song challenge
- Friday, 14th Chapter 5-7 ROAR -- R.I.2, R.I.10, W.2-work on song challenge
- Monday, 17th Chapter 8-10 ROAR --R.I.2, R.I.10, W.2- work on song challenge (Reading at home, MLK Holiday)
- Tuesday, 18th Chapter 11-13 ROAR -- R.I.2, R.I.10, W.2-work on song challenge
- Wednesday,19th Panther News will show a prerecorded clip of hints (clues) to common items/medicines/toys that were created by mistake. The students will be asked to complete a Google Form and submit it by Noon. All the correct answers will be put together and a winner randomly drawn. We will announce the winner at the end of 3rd block each day so the student can get their prize that same day. We will also post this clip on our Facebook page to encourage parent/community participation. They may also answer and have their names entered into a drawing for a prize!
- Thursday, 20th Panther News will show a prerecorded clip of hints (clues) to common items/medicines/toys that were created by mistake. The students will be asked to complete a Google Form and submit it by Noon. All the correct answers will be put together and a winner randomly drawn. We will announce the winner at the end of 3rd block each day so the student can get their prize that same day. We will also post this clip on our Facebook page to encourage parent/community participation. They may also answer and have their names entered into a drawing for a prize!
- Friday, 21st Panther News will show a prerecorded clip of hints (clues) to common items/medicines/toys that were created by mistake. The students will be asked to complete a Google Form and submit it by Noon. All the correct answers will be put together and a winner randomly drawn. We will announce the winner at the end of 3rd block each day so the student can get their prize that same day. We will also post this clip on our Facebook page to encourage parent/community participation. They may also answer and have their names entered into a drawing for a prize!

Friday will culminate with a pep rally schedule and a huge jeopardy game with questions based on the book. We will also show the videos that were submitted for the song rewrite and announce the winning class. The winning community members/parents will be invited to participate, as well.